Partially Renovated Family Home for Sale – Peaceful, Quiet Street. For sale is a partially renovated family home located on a calm, low-traffic street, offering the perfect opportunity to create your dream home in a peaceful environment. The renovation work has already been started, making this property ideal for those who wish to customize their home to their own taste, without having to manage the entire construction process themselves. There is also the possibility to continue working with the current contractor, allowing the new owner to complete the project in cooperation with them, according to individual preferences. The purchase price reflects the property's current condition, and with an estimated additional investment of approximately HUF 10,000,000, the home can be finished to a turnkey standard. This is an excellent opportunity for anyone looking for a well-located property in a quiet neighborhood, who would like to shape their future home according to their own vision.
